GW International Research Symposium
International Education Week

12:00 - 1:00, Public Health and International Development Panel

- Ally Pregulman, "Health as a Basic Human Right: The Efficacy of Quality Assurance for Health Care in Uganda"
- Grant Tudor, "Feeding an Under-Served Market: The Case for Business Solutions to Micronutrient Deficiencies in Kenya's Low-Income Markets"
- Jacqueline Abdalla, "Reducing Pneumonia Morbidity in Children in Bolivia"

1:00 - 2:00, Development and Communication Panel

- Allison Porton, "Radio, Loudspeakers, and Direct Contact: A Case Study of the Present Status and Potential Future of Older Communication Forms in the Hoa An Area of Vietnam"
- Allison Schachter, "Music as a Tool for Development: Critical Analysis of State Policy and the Role of Local Community Arts Programs in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa"
- Shaina Shealey, "Art-Based Development and Identity in Uganda and Bolivia"

2:00 - 3:00, Culture and Tradition of the Himalayan Region Panel

- Zachary Hindin, "The Philosophy and Form of Hindustani Classical Music"
- Mackenzie Drutowski, "Discovering the Dakini"
- Swetha Ramaswamy, "Tibetan Carpets... Or Are They? An Analysis of the Carpet Industry in Kathmandu, Nepal"

3:00 - 4:00, Politics, Media & Identity Panel

- Katherine Barry, "The Dichotomy of the Political and Ethnic Identities of the Swahili"
- Susan DeMartino, "Building a Common Afrikaans-Language Identity and Community in Post-Apartheid South Africa"
- Marissa Moran, "Vital Correspondence: Analyzing Local and International Media Coverage of Armed Conflict"

Friday, November 20
12:00—4:00
Elliott School
5th Floor
Conference Room
1957 E St, NW