Intensive Language Study:
Advanced Modern Standard Arabic
ARAB 3000-3500 (6 credits, 90 class hours)
SIT Study Abroad Program:
Jordan: Modernization and Social Change

PLEASE NOTE: This syllabus represents a recent semester. Because courses develop and change over time to take advantage of unique learning opportunities, actual course content varies from semester to semester.

Course Description
This course presents a survey of major concepts in Arabic language and culture, and aims to develop students’ knowledge of Modern Standard Arabic: both colloquial spoken language and the written script. This course aims to have students critically examine both the language they’re using on a daily basis and the way this language interacts with local culture. To become familiar with Arabic, students will learn grammatical rules, vocabulary, structure, and methods of forming sentences.

These linguistic rules will be tied to local cultural norms to give students a broader understanding of their everyday lives in Jordan and Jordanian society as a whole. Thus, not only does the course aim to have students use Arabic to express themselves in daily life, but also to develop students’ understanding of Arabic culture through different applications of the language. The 6-credit course will be held over 90 academic hours. Classes will meet five days per week, three hours a day.

Jordanian Arabic
Immediately after arriving in Amman and during the first week of orientation, students participate in a 15-hour introduction to Jordanian Colloquial Arabic that ranges from basic vocabulary and sentence structure to easy dialogues and interactive exercises. The objective of these sessions is to provide students with an elementary background and early familiarity with Jordanian Colloquial Arabic in preparation for the homestay experience.

Language Levels and Placement
Students are placed into appropriate language course levels based on oral proficiency interviews and written exams (placement tests) conducted during orientation in Jordan.
Learning Outcomes
By the end of the course, students should have mastered the following in Arabic:
• Understanding and processing information given over the telephone
• Speaking clearly to a group of native speakers on a professional subject
• Listening to, taking accurate notes on, and summarizing a speech or an informal discussion on their special interests
• Following discourses on non-technical subjects, e.g. a panel discussion
• Understanding and investigating attitudes towards culture

Course Requirements
Students are responsible for completing all required readings. Students should be prepared to discuss these in class. Readings enable students to challenge and engage lecturers, to generate questions for class discussions and to frame their daily experiences outside of class.

Required Readings:
ARAB 3000 - 3500 students will use the following books:
For Fusha (MSA):
Mahmoud Shafie, Noon wa Alqalam
Kristen Brustad, Mahmoud Al-Batal and Abbas Al-Tons, Al kitab fee ta allum al- Arabiya, Part Two

Course Schedule
*Please be aware that topics and excursions may vary to take advantage of any emerging events, to accommodate changes in our lecturers’ availability, and to respect any changes that would affect student safety.

This Arabic language course is designed to give equal weight to developing four skills: reading, writing, listening and conversation. All of the skills will be covered in the Standard Arabic class, and dialect will be taught through the listening and the conversation class.

Evaluation and Grading Criteria

Description of Assignments:
Timely completion of all Arabic assignments is expected. Late hand-ins will be penalized. In addition to this, students are required to attend class and will be graded on attendance and daily participation (absences must be cleared with the instructor ahead of time). Students are also expected to fully participate in all activities related to classroom themes. These include interacting with Arab language and culture partners and guest lecturers, including poets and advanced students of Arabic, who give students opportunities to practice their speaking outside the classroom.

Grading Criteria

All grades assigned will take into account the students’ special circumstances and challenges they face as foreign students. An “A” grade for an assignment entails superior (not just “very good”) performance in terms of not only technical correctness, but also in structure and organization of assignments, analysis, logic of writing and consistency.

In terms of Class Participation, an “A” grade refers to full attendance, punctuality, attentive listening and active engagement in all lectures, discussions, field trips and other activities. It also means polite and respectful behavior. The level, frequency, and quality of the students’ participation will be monitored and taken into account.

Student Expectations

Please refer to the SIT Study Abroad handbook for policies on academic integrity, ethics, warning and probation, diversity and disability, sexual harassment, and the academic appeals process. Also, refer to the specific information available in the Student Handbook and the Program Dossier given to students at Orientation.
