Intensive Language Study: French III

FREN 2500 (3 credits / 45 class hours)

SIT Study Abroad Program:
Switzerland: International Studies and Multilateral Diplomacy

Course Description
This course seeks to provide students with a broader access to the host culture and enable them to participate in daily social life. Developing conversation and comprehension skills enhances students’ interactive research throughout the semester. By the end of the course, students should be able to function easily in discussions relating to their personal interests.

This course focuses on communicative competence and linguistic functional ability. The lessons cover grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation as well as skills in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Teachers adapt the content of the courses to students’ needs in order to achieve much greater fluency in a short period of time.

Teachers use a wide variety of materials and exercises including authentic recorded material, role-plays, and newspapers and magazines, in addition to a French grammar book proposed by the language school where classes take place.

Through a homestay residence in the French-speaking Canton of Vaud, each student becomes a member of a family and shares in its daily life. This opportunity facilitates cultural immersion and helps develop language skills further.

The course is built on the knowledge students already have.

Learning Outcomes
By the end of the course, student should be able to:

- Deal with most situations likely to arise while traveling in an area where the language is spoken and to describe experiences and events
- Give precise explanations for opinions or plans, or to narrate a story
