Course Description

This course aims to provide students with broader access to the host culture and enhance participation in daily social life. Students develop their conversation and comprehension skills, strengthening their interactive research. By the end of the course, students should be able to participate in discussions relating to particular interests.

This course focuses on communicative competence and linguistic functional ability. The lessons cover grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation as well as skills in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Instructors adapt the content of the courses to students’ needs in order to achieve a much greater fluency in a short period of time.

Building off skills that students already have, instructors use a wide variety of materials and exercises including authentic recorded material, role-plays, and newspapers and magazines, in addition to a French grammar book proposed by the language school where classes take place.

Through a home stay residence in the French speaking Canton of Vaud, each student becomes a member of a family and shares in its daily life. This opportunity facilitates cultural immersion and helps develop language skills further.

Expected Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, student should be able to:

- Interact with natives with fluency and spontaneity
- Take an active part in discussions in familiar contexts, as well as to present descriptions on a wide range of subjects of personal interest and to explain a viewpoint on a topical issue
- Understand the main point of TV news, films and current affairs programs and to read a wide range of articles and reports concerned with contemporary issues
