Course Description

All SIT programs have an important language component as part of the overall cultural immersion experience. This course is designed to develop student proficiency and communication in Indonesian language, with an emphasis on vocabulary and dialogue most relevant to the program's content and design. While emphasis is placed primarily on oral comprehension and conversational skills (i.e., listening and speaking), reading and writing are highlighted as crucial to the reinforcement of those skills. Thus, the course is designed not only to help students acquire Indonesian, but also to grasp cultural practices in Indonesia. Cultural context is built into the course and introduced through experiential activities accompanying the textbook. Beginning Indonesian introduces students to pronunciation and writing systems of basic grammar, basic vocabulary and sentence structure.

Language Levels and Placement

Non-beginning participants are placed into appropriate language course levels based on oral proficiency interviews and written exams (placement tests) conducted during orientation in Bali.

Evaluation and Grading Criteria

Instructors evaluate students' performance based on observation, written exercises, quizzes and exams given throughout the course. Final grades are assigned by the Academic Director in consultation with the language instructors on the basis of the instructors' evaluation, the students' own self-evaluation, and the Academic Director's observation of the students' participation in classes and their efforts to use the language outside of the classroom.

Methods of Evaluation

Quizzes/Written Homework

25%

Quizzes and daily homework exercises are part of each class. This includes a short essay and five basic sentences checked daily in the classroom.

Written Exam

20%

At the end of the term, students take a written exam based on written work to date.

Oral Exam

30%

SIT Study Abroad–Indonesian language instructors and a certified Indonesian language coordinator who is a graduate of Udayana University give the final oral exam and make the evaluations. The oral exam is given by each teacher for 30 minutes to assess students' communication skills, including pronunciation, grammar and appropriate cultural understanding. The students are also evaluated on their fluency and accuracy in conversation.

Language Use Outside Class

15%

Students have to be very active and creative in using the language in and out of class. The language instructors observe and keep track of the students' use of the language in various setting out of class (e.g. during homestays, during long hour car drives, interaction with community members and professional staff at study sites, etc.). These notes are taken into consideration for the final evaluation of the student's linguistic progress.

Attendance and Classroom Participation

10%

Regular attendance and active participation in all classes and other language activities is vital to language learning. Participation should be positive, consistent and productive.

Additional Information

Homestay

As a complement to the language classes, homestays provide students with the opportunity to learn from different sources, including community members, and to use their language skills continually in a multilingual learning environment. Our goal is to help students develop the necessary communication tools that they can use with their host families, neighbors, and Indonesians on the street or in other public spaces.

Field Exercises

Through regular field assignments, students enrich their classroom learning experience and their ability to function in real life language situations, assimilate everyday life issues and immerse in the host culture. Field assignments are done both individually and in groups.

Office Hours by appointment

Office hours are by appointment and the teachers may schedule additional office hours for students who need further support.

Grading Criteria

An "A" grade for an assignment entails superior (not just "very good") performance in terms of structure and organization of assignments, analysis, logical argumentation and consistency, and the provision of factual, numerical and/or historical evidence. In terms of class participation, an "A" grade refers to full attendance, punctuality, attentive listening and active engagement in all academic seminar lectures, discussions, field trips and other activities. It also means polite and respectful behavior. The level, frequency, and quality of student participation will be monitored and taken into account.

Expectations and Policies

Show up prepared - Be on time, have the readings completed and points in mind for discussion or clarification. Complying with these elements raises the level of class discussion for everyone.

Have assignments completed on schedule, printed, and done according to the specified requirements
This will help ensure that the assignments are returned in a timely manner.

Examinations - Students are given examinations covering the major content of these lectures, field trips and readings.

*This syllabus is representative of a typical term. Because courses develop and change over time to take advantage of unique learning opportunities, actual course content varies from term to term.

Attendance - All students are required to attend all lectures and to participate in all bi-weekly discussion and analysis sessions. All excursions are mandatory and students must discuss absences with the Academic Director before the planned departure.

Participation - Participation is not the same as attendance. All students are expected to participate fully in all aspects of the course. This means asking pertinent questions to the course's guest lecturers, engaging in discussion and analysis during lectures, group discussions and on excursions. Students are expected to complete the required reading in a timely fashion, and to demonstrate their understanding of texts through reflection, writing, and discussion.
