Course Description
This summer program will focus exclusively on Modern Standard Arabic by addressing the four basic skills of the language: reading, writing, listening and speaking. In particular, the program is designed to develop student conversational skills. While emphasis is based primarily upon oral communication and conversation (i.e., listening and speaking), reading and writing are highlighted as crucial to the reinforcement of those skills. Students will use a variety of texts and materials, providing experience with descriptive, narrative and argumentative styles in Arabic. This exposure will extend to different textual and stylistic frames, and to main time references. The course is designed not only to help students acquire Modern Standard Arabic, but also to learn attendant cultural aspects of Jordan. Cultural awareness is reinforced through field exercises and the homestay experience. In addition to daily scheduled classes, students will participate in field-oriented educational visits to further enrich their language experiences. Students are in class for four hours daily, with an additional minimum of two to three hours of homework.

Jordanian Arabic
Immediately after arriving in Amman and during the first week of orientation, students participate in a 15-hour introduction to Jordanian Colloquial Arabic that ranges from basic vocabulary and sentence structure to easy dialogues and interactive exercises. The objective of these sessions is to provide students with an elementary background and early familiarity with Jordanian Colloquial Arabic in preparation for the homestay experience.

Language Levels and Placement
Students are placed into appropriate language course levels based on oral proficiency interviews and written exams (placement tests) conducted during orientation in Jordan.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:
- Demonstrate a functional ability to handle basic daily tasks and interactions with others (culturally appropriate greetings, introductions, market exchanges, relating everyday experiences, asking directions, etc.);
Show deeper knowledge of Jordanian culturally appropriate behavior associated with language use in a variety of contexts;

Demonstrate improved capacity to function independently in Jordan and the wider region through knowledge of Modern Standard Arabic.

Course Requirements
Course materials will be drawn primarily from Alif Baa, Introduction to Arabic Letters and Sounds and Al-Kitaab fī Ta’llum al-Arabiyya, Part I (second edition, with DVDs). The work will be supplemented with material from outside sources provided by the instructor.

In addition, we will use various multimedia tools throughout the teaching-learning experiences to further develop language competencies, including television, movies, newspapers and the Internet.

Prerequisite: None

Evaluation and Grading Criteria

Assignments
Students can expect daily assignments both as individuals and as a group. There are several quizzes and oral presentations, in addition to the midterm and final exams. All written assignments should be typed. Texts sent by e-mail will not be accepted. Make sure you have a laptop or computer available and keep back up files so nothing gets accidentally lost or erased.

Seminars
In addition to the culturally based content of the language classes, each week students will also have experiential sessions on different topics related to Jordanian culture, including art, history, gender and society. A specific schedule of seminars will be provided at the start of the program.

Description of Assignments
Quizzes: Daily in-class short quizzes to assess and evaluate learning. Quizzes contain both written and spoken components

Oral presentations: Supervised oral projects that focus on the spoken language. Oral presentations are linked to different themes learned in the language classroom

Midterm exam

Final exam

Participation: Participation in class refers to attendance, punctuality, attentive listening and active engagement in language classes, discussions, field trips and other activities. It also means polite and respectful behavior. An absent student is responsible for contacting the instructor and/or fellow students to be prepared for the assignments s/he missed and those scheduled for the next class. On average, students complete two to three hours of homework each night. Given the demands of learning a new language, class attendance is mandatory, while preparedness and participation are highly emphasized. Students receive oral feedback from the instructors throughout the course
