

By completing and signing this form, I affirm my understanding and agreement to the following:

Behavioral Expectations

Participants in SIT’s Online | Virtual Programs are expected to conduct themselves in the same manner as if they were taking the class in-person. Participants are expected to read the Student Handbook, Code of Student Conduct, Harassment Policy, and other policies found on SIT’s website.

With regards to SIT’s Harassment Policy, SIT respectfully reminds participants that violations, including those that occur online and in social media, may result in expulsion from the Online | Virtual Program.

Generally, SIT expects its Online | Virtual Program participants to:

- Be respectful of diversity and others’ time, opinions, identities, cultures, and privacy
- Be professional through their use of appropriate language, grammar, clothing, and screen backgrounds
- Be polite, mindful of tone, not take too much virtual space, and listen to others

Your course instructors will discuss these expectations during orientation.

Logistical Expectations

To ensure your success in achieving the course’s learning outcomes, SIT expects participants to have:

- A reliable internet connection to participate in the synchronous and asynchronous course activities
- Access to a physical space that is conducive to effective online learning and discussion

By completing and signing this form, I:

- affirm my understanding and agreement of the above expectations
- accept the offer of admission and express my intent to enroll
- will send SIT my updated schedule/availability four weeks prior to the start of the program
- agree to pay my deposit no later than four weeks prior to the start of the program (if required) and understand that failure to do so may result in program withdrawal
- affirm my understanding and agreement of SIT’s Undergraduate Virtual Language & Virtual Internship Course Withdrawal Policy.
