

SIT Faculty Seminar Abroad Participant Application

Africa Rising: Hip-Hop, Politics, and Critical Resilience in Senegal
June 2022

Name: _____

Title: _____

Department: _____

Institution: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Please tell us more about yourself, including your areas of academic interest and training, as well as any relevant courses, research, and/or publications related to the topics to be discussed in this seminar.

What are your goals for your participation in this seminar?

How do you hope to apply your knowledge gained through this seminar to the courses you teach or other aspects of your role as a faculty member?

Please send your completed application to facultyseminars@sit.edu.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, and applicants will be notified of admissions decisions within two weeks of applying. Upon notification of acceptance, a $400 non-refundable program deposit will be due within three weeks in order to confirm a spot on the program.