

Visa Process Acknowledgement Form:

Chile

By completing this form, I affirm my understanding of the following points:

- I need to obtain an apostilled FBI background check to apply for the Chile Student Visa.
- The visa may take 6-8 weeks to process once I apply online.
- SIT will send me supporting documents for my student visa application, allowing time for me to apply for and obtain my visa before the program start date. SIT cannot make special arrangements to accommodate students' individual pre-program travel plans.
- Before the start of my SIT Chile program, I am responsible for obtaining a Chilean Student Visa
- I cannot participate on the program with just a tourist visa
- The Chilean government may change visa requirements and fees at any time. Before beginning the visa process, I must verify the most current requirements and fees.
- Visas are issued at the sole discretion of the Chilean government in accordance with current legislation and laws.
- SIT is not affiliated with the central government of Chile and cannot waive students' visa requirements.
- Students with non-US passports may be subject to additional or different requirements for obtaining a visa or meeting other conditions of entry into the country. It is my responsibility to confirm and complete the visa application process applicable to my passport of residence.
